After

"OO" Flo, license to ????!!

I'm Coach Basketball,
This is a Franklin!

Rather fight than switch?

Horns----or Martian Antennae?

Hail! Hitler!

I tell you Ronnie,
I shot a 26-----
would you believe.....

Fair is Foul and Foul is Fair.
"TRITE"

Our epitome of strength!

Well, it keeps me warm!

My beard beats your black eye!

The Seniors
have given me
the most trouble!

Joe, you son-of-a-gun,
you drowned my clams!

MA YBE.....I do!

A rose between two thorns??

Wally Cox??

Granny Goodcook!

What's the formula for Roi-Tan?

Watch that saw
Leisen-zzz-zzz!

I just DARE you!!

WHAT! No Lectures!

WRONG WAY

Counting flowers on the wall.

Gomer??

If it starts to go out, throw in some books!

Hi ya! Mr. Dunahee.

Typical Sophomores!

Our group had 21% fewer teeth!

DAR

Miss Tamra DeVault, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell DeVault, was selected as DAR award winner of NGHS.

The award is based on qualities of leadership, patriotism, service, and dependability.

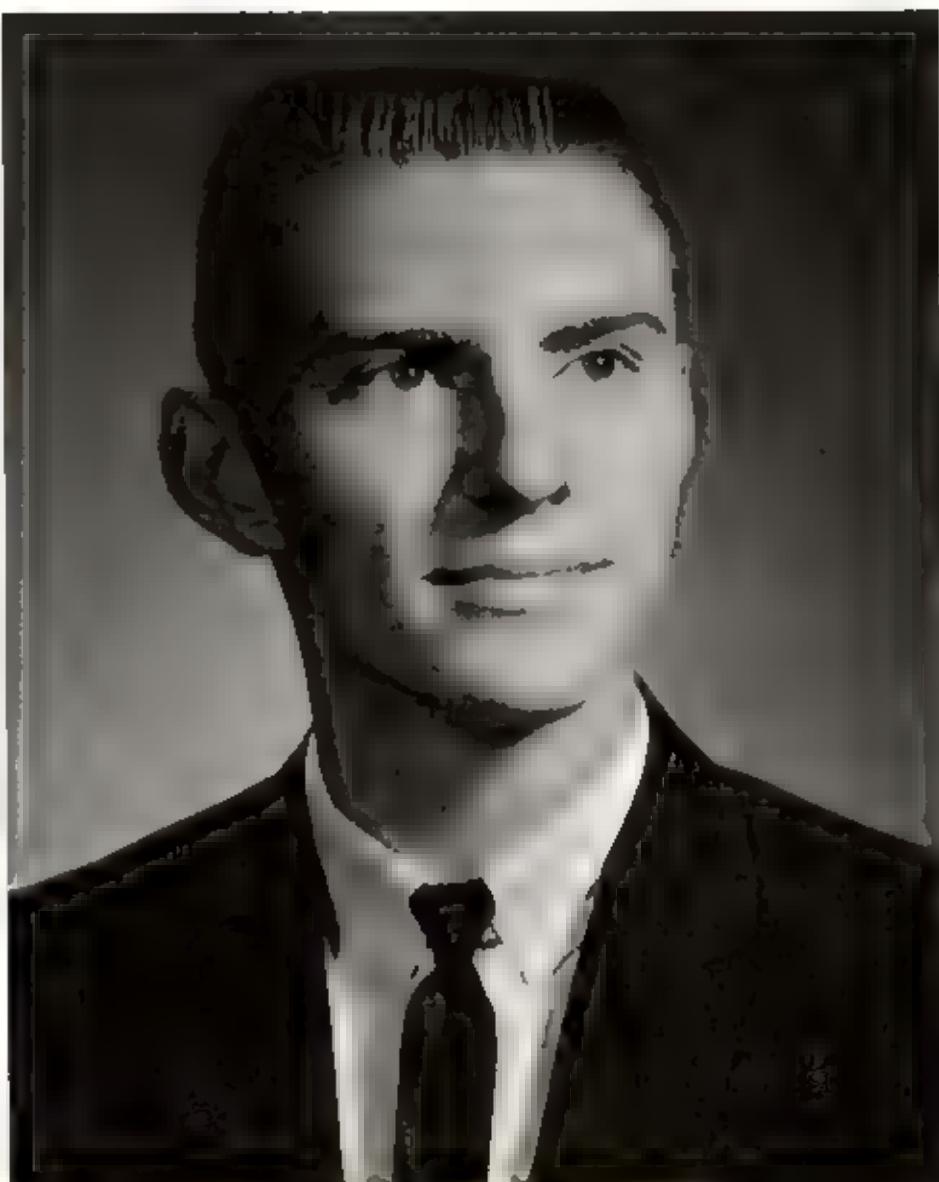

Tammy's future plans are to attend college and major in music.

SAR

Robert Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell P. Kerr, was named the recipient of the annual SAR award.

The award, presented to a boy of the Senior Class, is based on qualities in leadership, patriotism, service, and dependability.

Bob plans to attend Illinois College in Jacksonville, Illinois.

Girls' State

Cheryl Fundel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Fundel of Roodhouse, was selected by the American Legion Auxiliary to represent her community last summer at Girls' State.

The honor is based on honesty, leadership, good character, scholarship, and co-operativeness.

While at MacMurray College, location of Girls' State, Cheryl was elected Chief Magistrate.

Boys' State

John Bronstein, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Christison of Roodhouse, represented his community at Boys' State last summer.

He was selected by the American Legion Post of his home community. Qualifications for this honor are honesty, leadership, good character, scholarship, and co-operativeness.

Betty Crocker Award

Jane Van Tuyle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Van Tuyle of Roodhouse, was named North Greene's 1966 Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow.

Jane scored highest in a written homemaking examination taken by senior girls on December 7, 1965. She is now eligible for state and national honors.

The contest was sponsored by General Mills to emphasize the importance of homemaking as a career.
